Animal of the Month - African Lion

The regal African lion is a powerful hunter that roams the sub-Saharan savannas. These apex predators are the most social of all the big cats. They live in groups called prides that include up to 40 lions, typically consisting of related females, their offspring, and several adult males. The males serve as territorial guardians of the pride and also fight to protect the females from rival males and maintain their own status in the group. Lionesses do most of the hunting, often working together to secure large prey like zebras or buffalo. These nocturnal animals sleep or rest up to 20 hours a day, and both male and female lions have a powerful roar that can be heard up to five miles away. Adult males sport majestic manes that protect them from bites in battle and are seen as a sign of strength and good health, a draw for potential mates. Male lions weigh an average of 420 pounds, and females are significantly lighter at approximately 280 pounds.

A Heartfelt Farewell

After much thought, I have made the difficult decision to resign from my position at Eden House. It has been a privilege to be part of this wonderful community and to share so many meaningful moments with our residents, families, volunteers, and staff.

Thank you for your kindness, support, and the memories we have created together. I will always cherish my time here and wish everyone continued happiness.

All the best,

Love

Book Lovers Day – August 9

Every year on August 9, Book Lovers Day celebrates the joy of reading and the wonderful adventures that books can bring. Books have the power to entertain, inspire, and connect us to cherished memories. Reading is not only enjoyable but also helps keep our minds active, reduces stress, and encourages lifelong learning. It can spark conversations, bring back fond memories, and transport us to places both familiar and new. On Book Lovers Day, take some time to discover a new author, or share a beloved story with a friend. Every page turned is an opportunity to learn, imagine, and celebrate the lifelong love of reading.

A Fond Farewell to Baby Brodi

Over the past year and a bit, Brodi's visits brought countless smiles, laughter, and joy to our residents. Watching him grow has been a truly special experience, and the connections he formed with so many residents will always be remembered.

Thank you Brodi for brightening up
